

Expansion pro

(Continued from Page 66)

Hill's appoints five

Arthur R. Johnston has been promoted to vice president-operations for Hill's Division of Riviana Foods Inc.;

Arthur R. Johnston

James F. Alberson D.V.M. was promoted to vice president-veterinary marketing and Richard L. Carte D.V.M. was promoted to vice president-animal care marketing. William G. Daly, president, said.

Johnston, a graduate of Kansas State University with a degree in feed technology, joined Hill's in 1975 as operations manager. He is responsible for manufacturing, purchasing, production planning, inventory management, warehousing and distribution of all animal foods produced by Hill's. Johnston and his wife, Mary, have two children and live at 170 N.E. 82nd.

Dr. Alberson holds a B. S. degree in mathematics and a doctorate in veterinary medicine from Colorado Agricultural and Mechanical College. He joined Hill's in 1960 as a professional service representative and has held various positions in marketing and sales, the latest as director of marketing. He is responsible for the entire sales and marketing of Hill's Veterinary Products Department, which includes sales of Prescription Diet, Hospital Diet, PrescripTabs and VIP products. Dr. Alberson is a member of the American, Texas and Kansas Veterinary Medical Associations, the Zoo Veterinary Medical Association and is a fellow of the International College of Medical Technology. He and his wife, Ann, have two children, Jeff and Jane, and live at 1400 Campbell.

Dr. James Alberson

Dr. Carte was graduated from Georgia Technological College with a B.S. degree in biology and a doctorate in veterinary medicine. He joined Hill's in 1974 as a professional service representative and was named associate director of marketing in 1975 and director of marketing-animal care products in 1976. Dr. Carte is responsible for the sales, through distributors, of Holiday Science Diet, Zu Preem and Holiday products to pet shops, kennels, catteries, groomers, veterinarians, zoos and other specialty markets. He is a member of the American Veterinary Medical Association and the American Association of Laboratory Animal Science. Dr. Carte and his wife, Dodie, live at 6233 27th Court.

Durwood Hampton has been named can manufacturing supervisor for Hill's and Timothy L. Davis has been promoted to sanitation supervisor for the division, Daly said.

Hampton formerly was with Continental Can Co. in Baton Rouge, La., and Davis has been production analyst for Hill's since March 1976. Davis holds a B.A. degree from the University of Kansas and a B.S. degree from Kansas State University.

Hill's produces a variety of canned,

Firm offers

Affirmative Inc., a relatively new firm at Southwest Plaza, 29th, is offering voice verification through logical Stress Evaluation.

Mike A. Bowman, equipment is valuable pre-employment screening guilty parties in cases. He said it also is used in some city companies, especially in cases, by attorneys, psychiatry and psychology.

Instead of the voice pressure attachment, the PSE instrumentures and graphical stress-related communication voice, Bowman said.

A tape recording speech pattern can indicate involuntary speech indicating stress, he said. The device processes the voice from plays the inaudible patterns on a moving man said. Because, in needed, questions by phone or in casual the actual presence the PSE machine, he said.

A native Topekan was employed by St. and with a security Affirmative Intelligence has four employees.

People and

Ralph Huffman, Farm Bureau Insurance Uphaus and Irvin the firm in Shawnee, Kansas, was named for the company Team and they are awarded a trip to the San Francisco.

manager of Petro's footwear specialist week-long training dorthic Management Ball State University.

.....Jay Alquist of quist Associates Inc. ry 21 New Broker my at Costa Mesa, training by the firm network.....Jo Heil

Linda Lee Interiors Holland, Mich., who two-day Designer's seminar sponsored by Hill's manufacturing elements for open-office mar Anerderson, tive of Union Central Co., attended a seminar insurance and estate cinnati.

Van used

Graves Truck Line which recently has a "classroom on wheels" for students at French, about careers in the at the school's Career

The van seats 15 equipped for audio-tapes. It was designed by the company's terminating sessions, super aid training and Duane Sanders, Topeka, said.

Graves Truck Line has its Topeka terminal on 29th and En Road.

Hill's produces a variety of canned, soft-moist, dry and frozen foods for domestic pets and zoo animals. It has its headquarters at 401 Harrison and its plant at 320 E. Crane.

Lonquist is elected

Kathy Lonquist, manager of the Household Finance office at White Lakes, has been elected president of the Topeka Consumer Loan Association. She succeeded James Finn, man-en Road.

Mrs. Hunts

Helen Huntsman, the business office atal, retired last week service at the hospital.

Mrs. Huntsman Francis Nov. 17, 19 charge of admissions room records on the